Weekend Break – February 2017

The weekend break sold out really quickly so I'm sorry that some of you were disappointed that you were unable to book a place. We have opened a waiting list, so please let me know if you would like your name added. If any spaces become available we will contact you immediately.

Please share your news with us! We have really enjoyed learning more about our dancers and their interesting hobbies in the last few newsletters. Please do share details about your talents, interesting hobbies and jobs, places that you've visited, things that you've made and recipes that you think we would enjoy.

Here's a recipe for Lemon Meringue Ice Cream Cake that I've been asked to share.

It's incredibly simple and quite scrummy. Hope you enjoy it!

Ingredients

Bought slab of Madeira cake
8 meringue nests
500ml tub of crème fraiche
Jar of good quality lemon curd

1. Line the base of a 20cm round spring form cake tin with greaseproof paper. Cut the Madeira cake into 1cm slices and use to line the base of the tin. Fill in the gaps between the slices with small pieces of cake.
2. Break the meringues into pieces and put into a large bowl. Tip in all the crème fraiche and fold together. Dollop large spoonfuls of the meringue mixture and lemon curd into the tin. Don't stir. Spread level with a palette knife, then tap the tin on the counter surface to make sure the mixture is packed down. Freeze for at least 4 hours.
3. When ready to serve, remove the cake from the tin & put on a serving plate.
4. Dance off the calories at a line dance class ;)

It's so good to be back dancing with you all after the summer break! I know some of you were worried that you were 'rusty', but that's not been the case at all. Your dancing has been fab! Don't forget to check out the website for information about classes, events and dances and please do add your comments to our facebook page. I really would like to hear from you 😊
