KEEP DANCEZING KEEP SMILING

In May 2018 we held a social night for those who hadn't been invited to the royal wedding ;)

We have made some lovely memories over the years.

I know the current situation is challenging. You may not feel like dancing, but put the music on and dance one little dance - it is amazing how it will lift your spirits and help you to find your mojo

A PUZZLE WITHIN A PUZZLE

Mark shared this puzzle that he has just completed. There are 50 buildings in this jigsaw. How many can you find? We will give you the list in next weeks newsletter.

It would seem jigsaw puzzles have been very popular. Here are a few made by Yvonne

LOCK DOWN PURSUITS

Mark Wiles

Interesting reading Dick's article about rock climbing in the last newsletter, as Harrison's rocks is where I take my Scouts if we want to do some real but safe rock climbing, rather than a climbing wall.

Having retired a year ago (yes time fly's when you're having fun), lockdown has not been that difficult, other than not seeing friends live, as most of our classes have gone online. A lot of gardening, walking in the countryside, some DIY and puzzles, although mine tends to be every now and again, bit slow. I have been trying to keep scouting going virtually with a number of my scouts sending me pictures of badge work they have been doing at home. We also did a virtual renewal of our promises for St Georges day online via Facebook. I attach a picture of myself already, plus a picture of our Beaver Leader and his children making the broadcast for our group.

Finally we had a great VE day celebration, as a few of our neighbours do remember the day. Couple of pictures of our decorations and also social distancing, Claire is in the blue dress.
