DANCE DANCE WHEREVER YOU MAY BE

It may not be the same dancing at home but it is still good for the soul, so do try to stay motivated to have a dance each week. Some guidelines have been issued with regard to dance classes, but I am awaiting further information and clarity. I will keep you updated. In the meantime, stay safe and well & keep dancing and smiling xx

SALSA SOLO

This weeks new steps were Kick Ball Change & 4 Corners

Kick Ball Change - not to be confused with line dance 'kick ball change'. In salsa, this step enables a salsa dancer to get back on salsa timing when the accented beat has been changed by the musicians. You break forward on the accented beat on count 1 in LA & London style salsa. Part of the way through you may find that the musicians have changed the accented beat and it will be on count 5. Rather than stop & start again, Kick Ball Change can be used to seamlessly break forward on the accented beat, and to change back again if the musicians make another change.

4 Corners - danced over 16 counts and not to be confused with 2 corners (aka Roundhouse or Circled Piano). If you know your 'handbag' step, you simply dance a 'handbag' on each wall, starting with the wall to your right.
