WE WILL DANCE!

I am delighted that so many people are dancing with me online - it's great to know that nothing can stop us from doing what we love. Your motivation and enthusiasm is fantastic. We have people from far and wide including Devon, Isle of Wight, Yorkshire, Lincolnshire & even Wales....

Hope to actually 'see' you all soon! I am missing our Dancezing family but your comments in the chat box on our 'live stream' sessions are fab and it feels a bit like the banter we have in classes ;)

UNBELIEVABLE BUT TRUE

I read something the other day which I thought I would share with you. Aiden Moher, a writer, asked people on Twitter "Tell me a story about yourself that sounds like a lie but is absolutely true"

This was one of the responses from @JolieBlondeLA

"Growing up I never liked my Mother. We fought viciously. At 6 yrs old I wud scream "How r we related? I'm nothing like u! I want 2 b w my real parents, in my real house, w my boat & my dog. My "real" house was fancy btw, lol!

She wud call me a spoilt brat & say "Well, where r they? Go ahead go back 2 them! You have quite the wild imagination".

I wud even tell my friends that I had a boat & a dog. "She's lying, we don't have a boat or dogs" my Mom would embarrassingly explain.

In college I got a job taking photos of homes 4 real estate listings.

One day driving around, I saw the house from my wild imagination. I wasn't sure if I was awake or dreaming. How is there a house, detail by detail exactly like my imaginary one?

I felt sick to my stomach as I lightly knocked, not knowing what I was even going 2 say.

A nicely dressed lady answered the door & screamed out my name. She sat me on the sofa & brought out albums full of photos of my wonderful life with my beautiful family, my boat & my little white dog before I was kidnapped at 3 yrs old.

It wasn't a dream
It wasn't my wild imagination.
I wasn't lying"
