LOCK DOWN PURSUITS - BY MARK WILES

With lockdown on us again, thought I would share a few recommendations.

If you need to watch a bit of TV I would suggest the following
First series of Staged with David Tennent and Martin Sheen, very good, second series has just started. If you can find it, worth watching them on Graham Norton as well with George Clooney.

Also on the comedy front, Upstart Crow Lockdown Christmas 1603, we were able to see the stage show before all this madness. Ghosts Christmas special and also Motherland Christmas special, I love the scene in the bedroom where they are trying to clean the carpet of blood.

Also I love crime drama but prefer some of the foreign shows as they are a bit different so you do need to be ok with sub titles, but for recommendation are DNA (this is part in English) and Valhalla Murders set in Iceland, both BBC. The Announcer is French set in 1960's very stylistic or Nordic Murder, set on the Polish German border, very good.

Do you know about Mischief theatre?

They do the "goes wrong plays" which are very successful in the west end. On BBC they had the 'Nativity that goes wrong', the Halo scene is hysterical. They also have been doing a live stream as well, we had a ticket for their movie night show 28th Dec and have brought another for end of Jan. You can find them on the web or YouTube.

LOCK DOWN PURSUITS - BY MARK WILES

Just before lockdown I had started volunteering at East Surrey Museum in Caterham, as a steward. This involves opening up and getting the museum Covid ready for visitors and being on hand to answer questions and generally help visitors.

The museum covered the East Surrey area and has a fascinating collection of everyday artefacts and records for the area. I have in fact joined their committee to look after their building, given my background, which is occupying my time. Worth a visit when you can.

CHALLENGE

Although we find ourselves in lock down again, it does not mean that you cannot visit new places.

This week, why not visit somewhere you haven't been to before with the wonders of modern technology!

I took a look at the penguin and giraffe cams and went for a tour around Blickling Hall

ALBERT CAMUS

He said, "In the midst of hate, I found there was, within me, an invincible love. In the midst of tears, I found there was, within me, an invincible smile. In the midst of chaos, I found there was, within me, an invincible calm. I realised, through it all, that in the midst of winter, I found there was, within me, an invincible summer. And that makes me happy. For it says that no matter how hard the world pushes against me, within me, there's something stronger - something better, pushing right back"

Val found this on the internet and sent it to me to share in this newsletter.

She says:

" I found this on the net and thought how true it was. Just gives a warm feeling doesn't it."

Thank you to Val for sharing this with us. I think that we have all found an inner strength that perhaps we did not know we had.
