JUNE 2021

KEEP DANCEZING KEEP SMILING

The cover photo is of a social night we held in May 2018. Let's hope that we can get together at social nights again very soon.

It has been amazing to see you at classes since we re-opened in May. It's such a great feeling to be back on a real dance floor and to be with our Dancezing family! The atmosphere has been really great and despite fears of being 'rusty' you have all danced so well and remembered the steps!

DANCEZING TIMETABLE

We currently have an extended timetable, as you can see on the previous page, due to the fact that there are limited numbers in our classes due to Government guidelines with regard to being Covid secure. Even with the extra classes, I can still only accommodate approx. one third of the dancers who would like to attend.

For this reason classes need to be pre-booked and pre-paid for.

I have tried to ensure that everyone who has advised me that they would like to dance, gets an opportunity to do so and I have waiting lists set up for those who I am currently unable to make space for.

I will keep up to date with regard to social distancing guidelines in class and will let you know when our class restrictions can ease. In the meantime, let's make the most of being able to get back to the dance floor and enjoy being alongside our Dancezing friends.

DANCEZING ON YOUTUBE

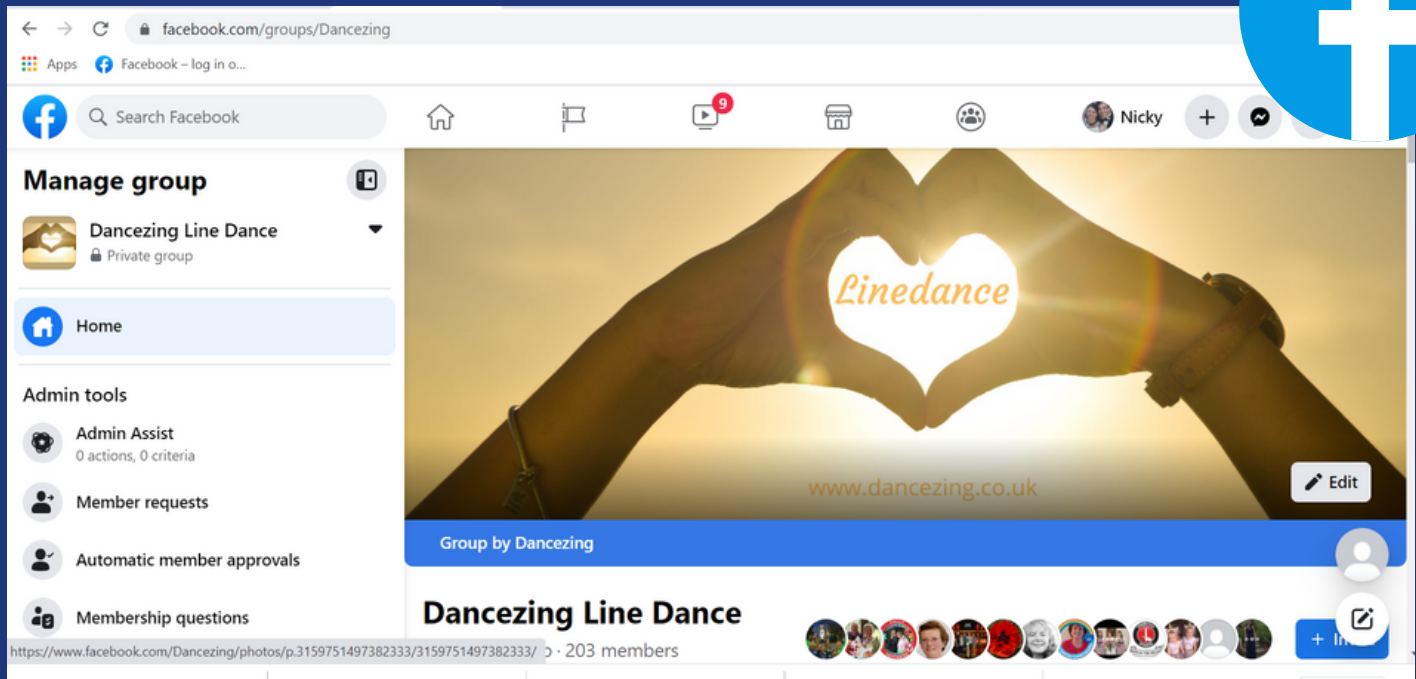

Subscribe to our Youtube channel by clicking on the icon in the bottom left of the videos. Once you have subscribed you can receive notifications whenever I upload a new video. You can find all of our tutorial videos in one place which is much easier and more convenient.

Let me know if you have any requests for a tutorial video.

DANCEZING ON FACEBOOK

We have a private facebook group just for our line dance club dancers. Click on the photo above to go to our group. You will find tutorial videos of dances and some extra videos not on the website or Youtube, including explanations of dance steps that are particularly useful for beginners.

You will also find class updates and dance lists and other things of interest including news of social events and weekend breaks too.

DANCEZING ON FACEBOOK

Not only do we have a facebook group for our line dancers but we also have one for anyone who would like to learn 'salsa solo' - authentic salsa steps without the need for a partner. It's great fun and good exercise. I have uploaded 14 lessons which you can do in your own time at home if you would like to. Let me know if you would like to join the group. Click on the picture below to watch the first lesson.

DANCEZING UPDATE

I had so many messages from people before classes re-opened in May expressing apprehension about not being able to remember dances. Any anxieties soon melted away. As soon as everyone was back with their Dancezing friends and the music came on, there was nothing but big smiles all round!

I have since received so many messages from dancers saying how great it feels to be back.

That is such wonderful news! I am truly happy to see you all again and for us to have so much fun on the dance floor! It really feels very special.

Hopefully we will soon be able to get back to our social nights again and we also have our weekend breaks to look forward to.

During lock down we held some quiz nights online which proved to be popular. I hope to arrange some real live quiz nights in the near future so watch this space...

QUIZ

If you have any ideas about social events or any dance requests or any suggestions for our club, please do let me know.

I have sent out emails confirming dance classes for July, so if you haven't heard from me do get in touch. I will soon be sending out messages about August classes, just to get an idea of how many of you will want to dance. Our timetable will probably change a little when restrictions are eased. I will keep you updated.

Keep Dancezing!
